

Raid on Swift Canadian Co's Plant at Winnipeg Prevented By Mayor and Gen. Ketchen

Intervene Successfully When Premises Are Visited by Returned Soldiers and Sympathizers Bent on Ejecting Bodily Alien Employees, Course Which Is Pursued at Other Places Visited

WINNIPEG, Jan. 27.—Twenty action by Mayor Charles Gray and Brigadier-General H. D. Ketchen was the only thing which saved a most threatening raid on the plant of the Swift Canadian Co. at Winnipeg, Jan. 27. With a large crowd of returned soldiers and sympathizers, the men succeeded in getting the men to at least refrain from raiding the plant and ejecting alien employees bodily. A course which was pursued by the soldiers at several places subsequently.

This action of the mayor and Gen. Ketchen was taken at the instigation of the afternoon's program of the day. It was the only thing which saved the plant from being raided by the returned soldiers and sympathizers. The men succeeded in getting the men to at least refrain from raiding the plant and ejecting alien employees bodily. A course which was pursued by the soldiers at several places subsequently.

Major Gray then mounted the rail-fence and addressed the crowd. He said that he was not a soldier, but he was a citizen, and he was not going to let the returned soldiers and sympathizers raid the plant and eject alien employees bodily. Britain Demobilizes 30,000 Troops Daily—Warning Given

LONDON, Jan. 27.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Ruter's Ltd.)—Thirty thousand men are now being demobilized daily, compared to eight thousand two weeks ago, while the rate of demobilization will shortly be forty thousand daily, it is announced.

If this process is continued for two months, Britain would be left without organized bodies of disciplined troops in any part of the world wherein she has been involved during the war.

Small Powers Line Up—United Front to Pressing Problems Presented by Peace Congress

PARIS, Jan. 27.—(Associated Press.)—The peace conference is a distinct gain, when the nineteen small powers gave full assent to the resolution formulated by the great powers, thus securing a united front of the great and small powers at the outset of the work on the main subjects before the members of the committee.

This was largely due to the skillful direction of Jules Cambon, French delegate and former ambassador at Washington, who was designated by the council of the great powers to preside over the meeting of the small powers held this afternoon. This meeting convened at the foreign office at 5 o'clock, at the same time the five great powers met in a separate place.

For a time there was some apprehension of the sequel to the different views of the small powers, but the meeting proceeded with entire harmony. The meeting proceeded with entire harmony. The meeting proceeded with entire harmony.

The Daily Poem

CONSOLATION

The light must shine to make the shadow fall—

In darkness the soul must sing—

If all were dark the soul might sing—

And joy and sorrow mingled make life sweet—

For the joy of sorrow gives the greater peace.

The shadowed valley held not all of gloom—

For in the shade some lovely flowers bloom—

The clinging fog the mountain top—

And, with its mist, the rarest beauty shrouds—

Some weeds may rear their heads—

And in the mist of life may run—

A trail of light, the secret tear-drops start—

Do not weep and yield to thoughts of gloom—

For joy will come with sunshine smile of mom—

Make not the burden greater than his child can bear.
